A Wise Choice

One of Houlton's bright housekeepers was asked by her husband the day before Christmas what she would like for Christmas and she replied that a years subscription to the Aroostook Times would be most acceptable, and what did her faithful husband do? He came to our office and paid for a year's subscription.

Never before have so many new subscribers to the Times as Christmas presents, been received as this year, which shows conclusively that the Aroostook Times is appreciated, and while we do not attempt to cover anything but the local field we do that as thoroughly as we can, which makes its advertising columns valuable to the business community.

Womans Club Entertainment.

From press notices received, the last in the above course is to far exceed the other two entertainments as Benj. Chapin who impersonates Abraham Lincoln is spoken very highly of.

The following are a few of the notices from different papers and critics:

"I went to see Mr. Chapin's 'Lincoln with many misgivings. I feared a shock to my conception of the personality which in all secular history most attracts me. But it gives me pleasure and not pain. It certainly presents a true interpretation of many sides of that many-sided and most racy and interesting man. Later, a group of my youngest friends were taken to see the play; and on questioning them I found that they had a better idea than ever before of Lincoln's wit, his good-humor, his tenderness, his unselfish patriotism, the annoyances and difficulties of his position, and the heavy weight he had to carry. I wish all our young people could see Mr. Chapin's 'Lincoln.'"

"I have heard Mr. Chapin's representation of President Lincoln three times in Plymouth Church. He could fill the church many times more with the same programme. In the interest of patriotism and civic virtue, and for the incitement of the highest ideal of character, I wish that all might hear this character study. It is inspiring, brilliant and profound."

"Mr. Chapin Lincoln" is written with admirable skill and restraint and deep and sympathetic feeling for the humors as well as the heroism of the man. It gives one a sense of the moral majesty not only of Lincoln but of his generation. It is to be recommended, in these days of frenzied exposure of graft and treasonous scourgings of the Senate, as a much needed spiritual bath."

"From the moment Mr. Chapin appeared upon the stage he had the audience with him through the commingled smiles and tears of his piece. When the curtain fell on the third act the audience rose to their feet in a body and demanded a speech."

This entertainment takes place in Manur Hall Thursday evening Jan. 9, for the benefit of the visiting nurse fund.

Spear-Lundy

Mr. Forest Lewis Spear, one of our most enterprising young farmers, owner of the George W. Kinney farm, Center Limestone road, and Miss Fern Estella Lundy, a much esteemed and very popular school-teacher of Fort Fairfield, daughter of Mrs. Fred W. Russell, were married in Houlton Tuesday.

At the ceremony the single-ring service was impressively performed. The bride appeared to advantage in a traveling suit of dark brown, the bridesmaid, Miss Willia Spear, a sister of the bridegroom, appearing in dark blue. The groomsmen were Roy Johnston of Parkhurst, who, as well as the groom, appeared in the conventional black.

Shortly after the service the happy couple left on the train for Brunswick, Boston and other places to return to Fort Fairfield late this month where they will be at home to their friends at their fine farm residence after December 31.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Spear of Limestone, and is well known as one of our steadiest, squarest and most promising young townsmen. Of the bride little need be said, as she is too well known by her pleasant ways and womanly qualities and too highly esteemed by all to need praise here.—F. E. Review.
